Surviving Goodbye by Morgan Parker - Goodreads

Surviving Goodbye also makes you smile in true Morgan Parker style and there's always a light at the end of the tunnel. There's always a flicker, but not necessarily a huge watt. Underlying humour lurking in the darkest of shadows is what he's best at and he does this with great skill.

Surviving Goodbye By: Morgan Parker. Prologue I learned the truth about Elena amidst a symphony of beeps, ticks, and the deep breath-like sounds coming from the equipment next to my wife's hospital bed. Karen hadn't opened her eyes in days, and the medical staff had insisted that she would have to ride into the weekend on the tails of a ...
