Some flower farmers sell virtually year round, offering holiday wreaths, succulents, and other products. Last year, I made the decision to focus only on the so-called shoulder seasons, based on two factors. First, another flower vendor started selling at the same market at below-wholesale prices during the peak months.

Flower Farming - Growing for Market

We are in our 2nd year, on our small flower farm in Big Sky Country. We mainly focus on selling our blooms at the local farmers market and to local florist's. As time continues we would love to delve into the wedding and specialty market. We are working on growing well over 75 varieties of flowers this year.
